

Always for everyone...

...uniquely Jamaican

Awaken each morning to the sounds and scents of nature. Here, time stands still and serenity reigns. Set amidst gardens of trees and flowering plants at the edge of Negril, Jamaica's laid-back resort area — the intimate, all-inclusive. Sunset at the Palms offers chic and serene accommodations — an environment so tranquil and calm, it will leave you breathless.

Sunset at the Palms features a trendy, new design, sumptuously appointed guestrooms, new amenities and lush landscaping. Just 65 "treehouse-style" guestrooms stand in a ten-acre tropical garden, a design praised by Architectural Digest. And it's all just steps from the resort's five beachfront acres — two miles of white, sandy beach - hailed as the most blissful beach in Jamaica. From the martini bar to the beach bar, Sunset at the Palms delivers the best of Jamaica's beauty and endless charm. See for yourself why TripAdvisor.com has named Sunset at the Palms one of the top ten most romantic resorts in the Caribbean!

Location

Relaxed and Chic – This is Negril
Sunset at the Palms stands at the gateway to the most blissful beach in Jamaica—the pristine beach stretch dubbed “Bloody Bay” located in Negril. A scenic, 60-minute drive along the coast links the resort and the Donald Sangster International Airport in Montego Bay, which is serviced by many leading air carriers.

Accommodations

Your Private Treetop Home

White drapes flutter over French doors in these airy, graceful guestrooms. Chic, Asian-inspired furnishings include gauzy linens, deep wood furniture and natural fibers. The sleek, modern bathrooms feature splendid slate tiles, chrome fixtures and showers with four body jets and two shower-heads. Daybeds on the balconies make you feel one with nature.

Noted for their distinctive design, the Deluxe Treehouse guestrooms offer spacious quarters and feature king size platform beds, air conditioning, satellite television, ceiling fans, safes, hair dryers and direct-dial telephones. Natural fabrics and furnishings add to the breezy island vibe.

Split-level Suites are the resort’s most exclusive accommodations. Descend from the master bedroom to a sunken salon with a sofa bed. Each suite boasts two full bathrooms and a private verandah.
